Reading Comprehension:

Read the passage carefully and then answer the questions about it. For each question, decide on the basis of the passage which one of the choices best answers the question.

Butterflies go through a complete metamorphosis in four different life stages. The butterfly starts its life as an egg. It hatches from an egg as a caterpillar. While it is in its larva stage, it constantly eats leaves or flowers. The caterpillar molts many times as it grows, losing its old skin again and again. The caterpillar turns into achrysalis. It rests while it is in this stage. Finally, a beautiful, ready to fly adult butterfly emerges.

7. In line 4, the word "molts" can be replaced by

- dies
- flies
- rests
- sheds
- hatches

8. The main point of the passage is that butterflies

- are beautiful
- are the same as a caterpillar
- eat a lot of leaves and flowers
- cannot fly until they are fully grown
- change completely in each stage of life
